Stratford Summer Music’s The Grand Illumination Rescheduled to Sunday August 4th

Enjoy A Mid-Summer Celebration at Lower Queen’s Park

STRATFORD, ON – Stratford Summer Music has announced the rescheduling of The Grand Illumination, for Sunday, August 4th, at 9:30 pm weather permitting. The original date of The Grand Illumination was on Monday, July 15th but had to be postponed due to inclement weather.

Join us for this free event, featuring the sounds of Berthold Carrière’s *Music for a Midsummer’s Night and an aerial display, in honour of Mark Fewer’s inaugural season as Artistic Director!

About Stratford Summer Music:

Stratford Summer Music is an annual, multi-week music festival featuring indoor and outdoor venues throughout downtown Stratford. With an artistic vision to produce, to the highest standards possible, a program of diverse and exciting musical performances by Canadian and international artists while providing the widest possible range of musical genres on its stages, Stratford Summer Music offers audiences a standard of musical excellence and experiences difficult to find outside large urban centres. In 2018, more than 70,000 people enjoyed the music festival’s ticketed or free concerts and events.
