Grammy winner to perform at Stratford Summer Music 2023

John Pizzarelli will make his debut appearance at the music festival this year

March 14, 2023 | Stratford, ON – Stratford Summer Music (SSM) announces that the grammy-award winner, and legendary singer and guitarist, John Pizzarelli, will be performing live at the festival for the first time, on August 13, 2023.

A radio host, musical ambassador and globally renowned as one of the most accomplished singers and guitarists of his generation, Pizzarelli will treat audiences to his signature, world-famous music-making at The Avondale, Stratford. As the finale concert of this season, his performance will begin at 4 PM, and the tickets will be priced between $40 and $125. The event also features a post-concert VIP reception ticket level, which will be held at Café Bouffon, Stratford. Tickets are available on the SSM website.

“I first heard John Pizzarelli more than twenty years ago, and that memory is as fresh today as the experience was back then. This performance promises to be the highlight of this (or any) season. Don't miss it!”, said SSM's Artistic Director Mark Fewer.
